

Doing What I Love

Success Team

Team Application

Diamond Life Creators is proud to present the “Doing What They Love” – Success Team

This team of winners will spend 6 months supporting, encouraging and motivating each other to new heights of business and personal success while being coached and trained by “The Practitioners Business Guru” Elmas Vincent.

This application is to help Diamond Life put together the best team possible where each member is right for the team and the team is right for each member. We are looking for as much diversity as possible in types of businesses and in experience level. Whether your business is directly a “holistic” practice or you do a more traditional business with holistic beliefs, it may be what we are looking for. If you just have a vague idea of what your business will be to you have been in business for awhile and want to take it to another level, we are looking for a broad range here to. The more diversity, the more range and perspective in Masterminding we can generate.

Don't worry that you don't have everything “worked out” for your business. We are looking more for motivation and passion!

Fill it out to the best of your ability and don't “over-analyze” your answers. We want real people with real dreams and desires. There are only 10 spots available for the first team, so get your form in as soon as possible for consideration before the spots are filled.
